Faith That Heals... Truth That Transforms

FEATURED:

How to pray effectively...

People often say to me “I pray but nothing happens, why is that? Is God ignoring me?” No! The book of James says,

“You ask but do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.” (Jas 4:3)

But what does this mean and how do I fix it? Well, recently, I spoke with someone who needed prayer and the result was (what I call) a textbook example of how to interact with God in prayer that demonstrates this.

Allow me to explain....

In the news...

Last week I was invited to Washington D.C. for an interview at the Christian Broadcasting Network (CBN) Studios. I was interviewed for a show called “Heaven meets Earth”. As I am writing this, I do not know when the interview will be aired, but when I find out, I will let you know too. In the meantime, Heaven meets Earth is a podcast worth listening to!

WE WILL BE HEALED BEFORE WE ENTER HEAVEN

(AN EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK “HEATHEN TO HEALER”)

He was a well-loved, elderly priest who fell and injured himself very badly. In fact, it was to be a fatal injury. He had been severely afflicted with scoliosis for most of his life and while he was normally about 5’10” in height, with his back disfigured the way it was, he probably stood about 5’0”. In fact, he was so bent over that when he consecrated the Eucharist, he held it up over his head but was unable to look upon it while doing so. Though retired, he volunteered his time at a hospital for many years and was well loved by the staff. He was also good friends with the hospital Chaplain, who was a nurse and an ordained minister at her church.

This Chaplain (who is a friend of mine) has a very special gift. When God allows it, she can see the angels and the saints. Since she’d formed a very close relationship with the priest and since she was a nurse, she was standing at his bedside in the intensive care unit at the very moment he passed away. Surrounded by IV poles and various machines and monitors, she told me that seconds before he died, she said she suddenly felt the presence of the Holy Spirit and said that she saw...

Glory Stories

(AKA: TESTIMONIES OF HEALING)

God sightings, “Holy Ghost” moments, Glory Stories...whatever you call them, they are always inspiring to share and to read. Here are just a few of the testimonies I’ve received from you:

Testimony 1

“A few weeks after my Zoom prayer session, the incision from my heart surgery from 2 years earlier began to feel fully healed. It always ached or itched, especially when lying down. I noticed one day that it felt normal again and didn't bother me anymore. Thanks be to God!”

Testimony 2

“Hey John! I don't know if u remember me, but you prayed with me one day after Bible study at [a recovery center in Port Huron, MI] ... I just want to thank you again for that. I literally felt chains break off of me that night, thank you for letting God use you to touch other people's lives! God bless your everything..”

Testimony 3

I have good news! Today I had my blood taken and the first time in almost two years my red blood cells and hematocrit and hemoglobin are normal. My hemoglobin is only over 1 point so it's normal. Thanks for your prayer! Now to storm heaven to heal me from these auto immune diseases

I get questions....

What role does authority play in prayer?

This is a question that I hear often. Usually those who ask it fall into one of three categories:

- The Christian who mistakenly believes that it is up to the clergy alone to pray for others and lay people are forbidden to do so.
- The cessationist who believes that miracles ceased when the last Apostle died so it is useless to do so.
- The fundamentalist who believes that it is up to them to heal every sick person they meet and cast out every demon.

In general, authority usually falls under two rules:

1. We have complete authority over ourselves
2. We can place ourselves under the authority of others.

This is why, depending on what the prayer request is, I may ask whether a parent, spouse or blood relative can be present when we pray. (click to read on...)

What is John Kowalski Consulting?

This is a unique ministry - perhaps the only one in the world - that provides the opportunity to receive healing and deliverance prayer over the internet. To be sure there are other fine ministries that will accept prayer requests, but none that offer healing and deliverance face to face as we do. And we do it all at no cost. Why? Because God's gifts are free to all.

Scope: All are welcome. Our outreach is ecumenical in nature, and we minister to all regardless of their faith tradition (or whether they even have a faith tradition).

Purpose: John J Kowalski Consulting LLC is dedicated to assisting people who are seeking God. We do not charge for God's gifts and instead rely 100% on people who are moved to donate to this ministry. Currently we operate in the state of Michigan as an LLC and are not a 501(C) 3 organization under IRS rules. As such, donations are not tax deductible.

Our beliefs: We believe in a triune God and that Jesus Christ was sent by the Father to redeem us. He was crucified for our sins and rose from the dead, leaving the Holy Spirit to assist us in returning to our true home in heaven. We believe that works are the natural response of a Christian, but in themselves are not salvific.

Our Mission: Following the example given by of Jesus, we encounter people, preach the Gospel and when necessary, work signs and wonders according to God's will to bring souls to Christ.
