Faith That Heals... Truth That Transforms

What is Lent?

On Wednesday, February 18, 2026, the season of Lent begins. Lent signifies a fortyday period of prayer, fasting and penance in preparation for the Easter celebration and while the etymological root of the word has been lost to time, its meaning has not and the lessons and practices - though quintessentially

Catholic - are meaningful and valid for all Christians.

But what precisely is Lent? The synoptic Gospels (Matthew 4:1–11, Mark 1:12–13 and Luke 4:1–13) tell the story of how Jesus was led into the desert for forty days to be tempted by the devil, after which He began His public ministry. But why was Jesus tempted at all? Why did he have to endure it? For the same reason He did everything else.

To show us the way!

Am I my Brother's Keeper?

Recently someone asked, “why do good people have to suffer?” I replied, “Because of original sin.” To which they said, “I know that, but why do I have to suffer when it was Eve who ate the apple, and not me?”

The answer to this question is neither straightforward nor fulfilling.

First off, the fall was not the result of Eve, because the covenant was made through Adam. Recall that when Eve ate the apple nothing happened, but when Adam ate the apple, the whole world fell apart.

But that aside, Adam and Eve only committed one sin; how many have you committed?

Where is that picture?

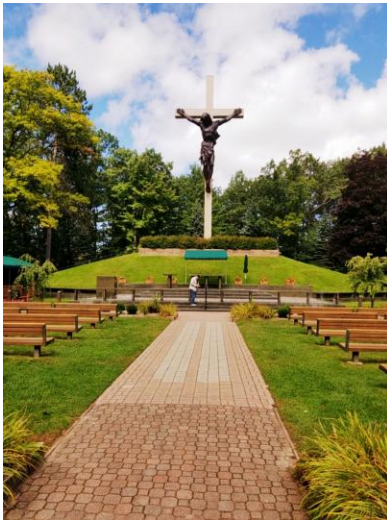

Many of you have asked "where is that" concerning the background I use when I meet online with you. The location is called

The Cross in The Woods and it is located in Indian River, Michigan. So if you find yourself in the northern, lower peninsula of Michigan, I highly recommend visiting this shrine.

Here are some facts about this shrine:

- The crucifix measures 55 ft (16.7 m) tall by 26 ft (8 m) wide and is made out of a California Redwood Tree.

- The bronze figure of Christ, created by Michigan sculptor Marshall Fredericks, stands 28 feet tall, weighs seven tons, and was cast in Norway before being shipped across the Atlantic.
- The cross rests on a man-made hill (Calvary Hill) built with a steel and concrete foundation covered in soil, measuring 150 feet long, 15 feet high, and 75 feet wide.
- The site includes an outdoor church, a new indoor church (completed 1997) seating 1,000, 14 Stations of the Cross in a pine forest, and several smaller shrines honoring figures like Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, Saint Francis of Assisi, and Saint Peregrine.
- The Nun Doll Museum houses the largest collection of dolls dressed in traditional religious attire in the U.S., with over 500 dolls and 20 mannequins.
- The shrine is open 365 days a year, with daily Masses held, and receives 275,000 to 325,000 visitors annually.
- The original idea for the cross emerged in 1946, inspired by Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, a 17th-century Mohawk woman known for placing small crosses in the woods as prayer sites. She was canonized in 2012.

Glory Stories!

Each month, I love to share Glory Stories (testimonies) of how God is healing, restoring, and answering your prayers

Insomnia - GONE! - Lagos, Nigeria/Over the Internet

"Thanks for taking the time to pray for me the other day. My sleep has improved and I'm looking forward to more improvements in other areas too."

Daughter's anxiety - GONE! - USA/Via Email

Hi. I'm in awe. I prayed this prayer before I went to bed last night, when I woke at 3:30am, and again when I woke at 7:30am . I talked to my daughter around noon and she sounded happy. I texted to her after to tell her that and she said I am, so far it's a good day. Before going to bed this evening, she told me she felt better. Thank you for the prayer, I can not wait for our prayer session.

Spiritual Darkness - GONE! - California, USA/Over the Internet

It was very nice meeting you. Thank you for taking the time to pray with me this morning. I feel light in my spirit and the heavy darkness has lifted off me. God is an amazing God. I am so grateful to feel free from whatever it was that had bound me. I give thanks and glory to God for working through you. Thank you for being His vessel.
